is fantastic, great sights, I love the city.

Day 5 - 11 - 11 - 95

Driving to Sienna d the U.S. Military Cemetary to see our brother Dickie's grave. It was a sight to behold, we will never forget it. I felt Dick's presence, she could almost feel him touch you.

Father & all the choir members
prayed, then Father
blessed the grave.
We all sang hymns
& my favorite is Holy Ground. Maria
sang Ave Maria &
it was spectacular.
We now feel our
brother is properly
& officially buried.
Our tour guide Mr
was very attentive &
he gave us a 50th

Anniversary pin & also our surprise it was Armistice Day. This was all so touching
even the grown men cried. It was the highlight of our trip.
Onto Siena the
city of St Catherina Patroness of Italy.
She was beautiful
on to Assisi, it
